

Note taking in preparation for the Socratic Seminar on Scrawl by Mark Shulman

Tape the following chart in your journal and fill it out as you read or after each chapter.

Write the page numbers of the novel you just read and a two sentence summary.	Who is revealed to have a desire to belong and to which group do they want to belong? How do you know? (include a quote)	What barriers to belonging do character(s) face in the passage? Include a quote that supports this claim.	In this section of the book, what is sacrificed by which characters in order to belong? Include evidence (quote)	In this part of the novel, what opportunities for belonging could be created and who would be the person to do it?